

Venue: Ärzte ohne Grenzen / Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF) Austria ; A-1020 Vienna, Taborstrasse 10, Tel.: +43-1-4097276 fax: +43-1-4097276

Time: 11th-13th of November, 2009

The purpose of the workshop is to build evaluation capacities, and improve quality of evaluations in MSF. The workshop is designed for potential evaluators in MSF.

11 th November MSF office	12 th November MSF office	13 th November MSF office
Introduction to evaluation in Humanitarian Aid	Qualitative tools & data collection methods	Quantitative data and their analyses in evaluation
10:00 Welcome to the workshop introduction and program From 10.30-17.00 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Why evaluate? Evidence based management. Evaluation for What? For Whom? What is an evaluator? ▪ Evaluation objectives, criteria and standards ▪ Evaluation question and “availability” ▪ Terms of reference for evaluation ▪ Utilisation of evaluation Facilitated by: Sabine Kampmüller, OCG Vienna Evaluation Unit, Gunilla Kuperus, OCA evaluation unit.	9.00 From 9.00 – 17.00 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Introduction to qualitative research ▪ Protocol development (group work and plenary session) ▪ In-depth/ semi-structured interviews ▪ Points on Focus group methods Facilitated by: Julia Sinclair, University of Southampton Lorelei Jones, LSHTM	9.00 From 9.00 – 16.15 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Introduction to methods of collecting quantitative data for evaluation ▪ Epidemiological measures of health and disease ▪ Analyses of (routine) data; ▪ Interpretation of results of epidemiological analyses; Facilitated by: Anne Perrocheau, Epidemiologist, Mzia Turashvili, OCG Vienna Evaluation Unit